

Dear Mr. Powell:

I am writing to express my opposition to lifting the ban on cross-ownership of media.

Lifting the ban will make U.S. media even less diverse, more commercial and less accountable to the public. Such changes are definitely not in the public interest.

I call on you to protect the public interest in diverse media. Do not lift the ban on cross-ownership.